

STUDENT CARD STICKER VALIDITY AFTER AN EMERGENCY

Dear Student,

On 17 June 2020, Act LVII of 2020 on the termination of the state of emergency in connection with the novel coronavirus pandemic was published. According to the Educational Authority, the student cards with 2019/2020. I. semester stickers will be valid for another 180 days following the end of the emergency.

Based on the above, you can use your first semester stickers for an additional 180 days.

The travel companies will accept the student travelling discount certificate without a signature and stamp.

Please note that students graduated in June can also use their student cards for an additional 180 days.
